I. Summary of Operating Performance, etc.

1. Explanation of Business Performance

Regarding the economic environment surrounding the Group for the third quarter under review, in Japan, capital investment and exports were strong, while the recovery of the semiconductor market continued to show signs of hesitancy. Turning to overseas regions, uncertainty surrounding the United States increased due to its trade policy, but recent economic conditions there remained robust. While signs of economic recovery were observed in Europe, China likewise saw a modest increase in demand despite lingering economic stagnation.

In this business environment, according to the “Medium-Term Management Plan 2026,” the Group aimed to increase corporate value in a sustainable manner by solving social issues through products and services. Also, we moved forward with measures, such as expanding contribution to SDGs and strengthening initiatives for reducing negative environmental impacts, as well as improving our earning capacity and capital efficiency and strengthening our efforts to explore new businesses in order to develop a robust entity.

As a result, the Group's orders amounted to JPY789.7 billion (up 19% year on year). On the other hand, sales came to JPY753.2 billion (down 2% year on year) due to a smaller backlog of orders. In terms of profitability, the Group posted operating profit of JPY34.7 billion (down 15% year on year), ordinary profit of JPY31.5 billion (down 11% year on year) and profit attributable to owners of parent came to JPY19.9 billion (down 18% year on year).

The situation by segment is described below.

In addition, starting in the current consolidated fiscal year, we have decided to reconfigure businesses across segments to streamline segment management and promote synergies. Specifically, we have reallocated the laser systems business in the Mechatronics segment to the Industrial Machinery segment, and the cryocoolers business in the Industrial Machinery segment to the Mechatronics segment. For this reason, the year-on-year figures are presented as a comparison with those of the previous consolidated third quarter, which have been restated based on the reporting segment categories after the reconfiguration.

(i) Mechatronics

Orders increased for gear reducers due to a recovery in demand in Japan and abroad. Orders for motors and inverters also rose, following the resolution of inventory adjustments by customers in Europe. Sales and operating profit also increased due to a rise in orders.

As a result, orders increased by 9% year on year to finish at JPY200.9 billion, while sales increased by 5% to JPY198.3 billion. Operating profit increased by 53% to JPY14.0 billion.

(ii) Industrial Machinery

The plastics machinery business saw increases in orders, sales and operating profit, driven by rising demand from China, mainly for electrical and electronics-related products.

For other businesses, orders increased despite a decline in demand for semiconductor-related products, as demand for other products generally rose. Meanwhile, sales and operating profit decreased due to a smaller order backlog for semiconductor-related products.

As a result, in year-on-year terms, orders increased by 10% to JPY166.1 billion, sales declined by 9% to JPY148.6 billion, and operating loss amounted to JPY2.5 billion.

(iii) Logistics & Construction

The hydraulic excavator business saw an increase in orders due to the completion of the inventory adjustment cycle at distributors in North America. Meanwhile, sales and operating profit declined due to fewer orders from Japan and North America in the previous fiscal year.

The mobile crane business recorded orders at a level comparable to the same period last year, but sales and operating profit increased due to a backlog of orders.

In the material handling system business, orders and sales increased due to strong market conditions, but a decrease in highly profitable projects led to a decline in operating profit.

As a result, in year-on-year terms, orders increased by 16% to JPY278.3 billion, sales decreased by 5% to JPY272.0 billion, and operating profit decreased by 40% to JPY12.9 billion.

(iv) Energy & Lifeline

The energy plant business saw an increase in orders as a result of winning a biomass power generation facility project in Europe. Sales decreased due to a smaller backlog of orders, but operating profit increased because of improved project profitability and lower development expenses, as development investments for commercialization of the Liquid Air Energy Storage (LAES) conducted in the previous fiscal year were largely completed.

For other businesses, orders for water treatment equipment, marine structures, and other products increased. Sales and operating profit also rose due to an order backlog, mainly for water treatment equipment.

As a result, in year-on-year terms, orders increased by 64% to JPY139.6 billion, sales decreased by 1% to JPY129.6 billion, and operating profit increased by 322% to JPY8.6 billion.

(v) Others

In year-on-year terms, orders increased by 2% to JPY4.8 billion, sales increased by 4% to JPY4.8 billion, and operating profit increased by 23% to JPY1.7 billion.

2. Explanation of the Group's Consolidated Financial Position

1. Condition of Assets, Liabilities, and Net Assets

Total assets at the end of the third quarter of the current consolidated fiscal year (ended September 30, 2025) amounted to JPY1,261.6 billion, an increase of JPY1.4 billion as compared to the end of the previous consolidated fiscal year. This was mainly due to increases of JPY17.5 billion in inventory assets and JPY15.4 billion in tangible fixed assets as compared to the end of the previous consolidated fiscal year, while notes and accounts receivable - trade and contract assets decreased by JPY32.0 billion.

Total liabilities came to JPY622.6 billion, an increase of JPY8.8 billion as compared to the end of the previous consolidated fiscal year. This was partly because interest-bearing liabilities increased by JPY12.1 billion, while notes and accounts payable - trade decreased by JPY7.6 billion.

Net assets amounted to JPY639.0 billion, a decrease of JPY7.4 billion as compared to the end of the previous consolidated fiscal year. This was mainly due to a decrease of JPY10.4 billion in foreign currency translation adjustments, while retained earnings increased by JPY5.1 billion.

As a result of the above, the shareholders' equity ratio experienced a 0.6 point drop from the end of the previous consolidated fiscal year to finish at 50.2%.

2. Cash Flow Condition

Cash and cash equivalents at the end of the third quarter of the current consolidated fiscal year came to JPY105.3 billion, a decrease of JPY2.2 billion from the end of the previous consolidated fiscal year. Cash flows for the cumulative third quarter of the current consolidated fiscal year and the factors contributing to increases or decreases in cash flows are as follows.

(Cash Flow from Operating Activities)

In the cumulative third quarter of the current consolidated fiscal year, cash flow from operating activities generated a JPY44.6 billion increase in cash, up by JPY34.0 billion year on year. This was mainly attributable to a slower decrease in notes and accounts payable and a slower increase in inventory assets.

(Cash Flow from Investing Activities)

Cash flow from investing activities decreased by JPY42.1 billion during the cumulative third quarter of the current consolidated fiscal year, while spending remained largely unchanged year on year. This was partly attributable to an increase in revenue due to collection of loans receivable, while spending increased for the acquisition of shares in subsidiaries, which resulted in a change in the scope of consolidation.

(Cash Flow from Financing Activities)

In the cumulative third quarter of the current consolidated fiscal year, cash flow from financing activities resulted in a JPY4.0 billion decrease in cash. This represented a JPY38.5 billion year-on-year increase in outflow. This was because funds raised through interest-bearing debt decreased year on year, while expenses for the acquisition of treasury shares decreased.

3. Explanation of the Consolidated Earnings Forecast and Other Forward-Looking Estimates

No change has been made to the consolidated earnings forecast for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2025 that was announced in the financial report dated August 5, 2025.

4. Items of Special Note Concerning the Quarterly Consolidated Financial Statements (Significant Events or Conditions that Question the Premise of a Going Concern)

There are no applicable items.

(Application of Accounting Procedures Specific to Preparation of Quarterly Consolidated Financial Statements)

(Calculation of tax expenses)

The effective tax rate expected to be imposed on pretax profit (after tax effect accounting) applicable to the consolidated fiscal year in which the third quarter of the current consolidated fiscal year is included was estimated based on reasonable assumptions, and tax expenses were calculated by multiplying the quarterly pretax profit by the estimated effective tax rate.

(Changes to Accounting Policies)

(Application of “Accounting Standards for Corporation Tax, Resident Tax, Business Tax, etc.”)

“Accounting Standards for Corporation Tax, Resident Tax, Business Tax, etc.” (ASBJ Statement No. 27, issued on October 28, 2022; hereinafter referred to as “2022 Revised Accounting Standards”), along with other guidance, have been applied from the beginning of the first quarter of the current consolidated fiscal year.

In connection with the amendment to the accounting classification of corporation taxes, etc. (taxation on other comprehensive income), we follow the transitional treatments set forth in the proviso to Paragraph 20-3 of the 2022 Revised Accounting Standards and in the proviso to Paragraph 65-2 (2) of the “Implementation Guidance on Tax Effect Accounting” (ASBJ Guidance No. 28, issued on October 28, 2022; hereinafter referred to as the “2022 Revised Implementation Guidance”). This change in accounting policy has no impact on the consolidated financial statements for the third quarter under review.

In addition, regarding the amendments related to the revision of the treatment in consolidated financial statements when gains or losses from the sale of subsidiary shares, etc., between consolidated companies are deferred for tax purposes, the 2022 Revised Implementation Guidance has been applied from the beginning of the first quarter of the current consolidated fiscal year. Please note that since the impact of this change in accounting policy on prior periods is minimal, no retroactive application or modification of retained earnings, etc., at the beginning of the current consolidated fiscal year has been made. In addition, the impact of this change on consolidated financial statements for the third quarter under review is minimal.

(Notes regarding Significant Fluctuations to Shareholders' Equity)

There are no applicable items.

(Notes on Segment Information, etc.)

(Segment Information)

1. Summary of Reporting Segments

The Group's reporting segments are based on those units within the Group where separate financial information is available and where the Group's Board of Directors periodically deliberates over such matters as the distribution of management resources and the financial performance of such segments.

The Group formulates a comprehensive international and domestic strategy for individual products and services for the head office and for each consolidated subsidiary, and executes such strategies at the operating level. Consequently, the Group comprises segments that are split by categories of products and services offered by the head office and consolidated subsidiaries. More specifically, the four reporting segments of the Group are "Mechatronics", "Industrial Machinery", "Logistics & Construction", and "Energy & Lifeline".

Businesses	Main Products
Mechatronics	Gear reducers, motors, inverters, cryogenic equipment, precision positioning equipment, control components
Industrial Machinery	Plastics machinery, film forming machines, precision forgings, semiconductor production equipment, laser processing systems, ion accelerators, medical machines and equipment, forging press machines, machining tools, air-conditioning equipment, defense equipment
Logistics & Construction	Hydraulic excavators, mobile cranes, road machinery, material handling systems, logistics systems, automated parking systems
Energy & Lifeline	Private power generation facilities, boilers, air pollution control equipment, water and sewage treatment systems, turbines, pumps, pressure vessels, mixing vessels, food processing machinery, ships, marine structures

2. Matters Related to Changes in Reporting Segments, etc.

Starting in the current consolidated fiscal year, we have decided to reconfigure businesses across segments to streamline segment management and promote synergies. Specifically, we have reallocated the laser systems business in the Mechatronics segment to the Industrial Machinery segment, and the cryocoolers business in the Industrial Machinery segment to the Mechatronics segment. For this reason, the figures for the previous consolidated cumulative third quarter, as outlined in “3. Information on Sales, Profit, and Loss Amounts by Reporting Segment,” have been restated in this document based on the reporting segment categories after the reconfiguration.
